

Leader of Your Own Free World – 30”

Key LPB3301DL30

VO: This man dreams of winning Powerball,
In his dream, he’s walking along the beach wearing nothing but the breeze.
He’s not breaking any laws. Because he owns this island.

If you win Powerball and are leader of your own free world, you can play by your own rules.

If that means shaking what your mama gave you in the cool island breeze, then you do you... Mr. Island King.

What would you do?
Powerball. Play by your own rules.
